DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 63,74 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims use an element to define itself in relationship to itself and it is unclear of its meaning.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 55-62,64-73 and 75- 114 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Harrold USPN 6,460,693.

Harrold discloses a blister pack storage means comprising a holding means received inside of the dispenser with engaging means releasably holding the two members together. Harrold discloses a number of embodiments including various biasing means releasing means and engagement means. The figures clearly show the various mechanisms with edge portions that engage a catch and said edge is then displaced to release the holder See figures 1-13. Though Harrold does not disclose all of the types of release mechanisms they variants claimed are obvious.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPNs 4,120,400 and 6,155,454.
